DEPARTMENT HEAD REPORTS –

Don – Building Dept - We are in the process of taking bids for demolition and reaching out to demolition companies for 73 Main Street and meeting with an asbestos company tomorrow to go over there and do an evaluation the property. I still I know last meeting we talked about those temporary towers. Verizon and T-Mobile have reached out also they're supposed to give me some type of paperwork to use for tonight, but I haven't heard from either of them, so I don't know what's going on with that. Other than that, it's business as usual permits as are coming. Season starting up to pick up now because everyone is expecting the weather to break early, I think. Mayor Peterson asked within our last two weeks Kate have you finished your code enforcement studies? Yes, I am officially a code enforcement officer.

Chief Gauthier – Fire Department - Thanks to anybody that came out and supported our junior fire department firefighters pancake breakfast over the weekend. It was a pretty good success for those young firefighters and I'll still thanks anybody that supported our Hook and Ladder tool raffle that they recently had. Thank you for the board for changing us over to Firefly. It's a great help that will make some of our operations a lot easier. I'd also like to thank the board for for the support in the volunteer firefighter local law uh for the tax exemption. I appreciate that. Fire calls for the month of January we had 34. Month of February we had 26 and only eight so far for the month of March for a year-to-date total of 68 fire calls.

Ken Pyc – DPW – The break room that we are working on at Village Hall is just about complete. We will be grinding stumps from our tree removal. Just a reminder that the parking ban is going to end shortly, but if it does snow, kindly move your cars off the street if at all possible. Mayor Peterson asked if we have enough salt left? The answer was yes.

Kevin Ferguson – REC - Just a couple things too as people have heard. This summer we have problems getting lifeguards but we already have I have 11 lifeguards already coming back which is pretty good and I got two calls today. Our partner over at the Lancaster pool, Rich fry he's going be teaching a class at the high school pool so we'll have plenty of Lifeguards if we don't have anything to worry about. Second of all we have tryouts coming up and the rink will be closing probably in mid-April so for tonight is the last learn to skate there is about 35 to 40 kids they are getting certificates.

Sam Alba – Legal - We've got a couple local laws we're continuing to work on there's evolving robust discussions on what we should do to regulate short-term rentals. We came up with a quick fix tonight for our most problematic short-term rental and hopefully the effective plan is to send that resolution on to the folks at Airbnb so hopefully they take the listing down and then there's evolving discussions on how to regulate this properly we're also working on just kind of having discussions around marijuana stores and how we're going to regulate those eventually. We've got a couple of article 7 settlements coming through and one of the red flag law hearings coming up in a couple weeks with the police department. On a separate note I went down a rabbit hole about Chauncey Depew and started researching Chancey Depew who are Village is named for and I learned that he was quite the popular orator he was famous for talking at many events.

Trustee Ziemba – Congratulations Kate

Trustee Adolf - Well I have good news, our application was received from Tree City USA and we are officially a tree City for another year. Three years so it's great stuff. I am happy to be working you know with this program as we continue to beautify our village and create Green Space within it so thank you so much to everyone. I'm happy we keep it going, it's great, we're recognized throughout the United States. You know you can look up the names and Depew is in it and it's a national program and I'm glad that we're recognized. Trustee Kucewicz asked where are you planning on putting that sticker. The reply was this sticker goes on the sign that's in Fireman's Park. It'll go over below the sign, and it'll read that we've been a tree City USA for three years now. Mayor Peterson asked if we were planting trees regularly? Trustee Adolf answered yes, we have funding for that we're very fortunate to have a DPW that assists us with that so I'm very thankful to them as well and just as a note we do have a memorial program that we started last fall where if somebody wants to memorialize somebody, they can purchase one of eight or nine varieties. You get one tree at the village price and we also have a couple of options of a plaque that could go with it. We have two new trees by the welcoming sign by Burger King that was put in there by Grant Gastoni from Gastoni insurance. We have three that were planted in Veterans Park. Then one for former Mayor Barb Alberti's family also has a tree Veterans Park. We also ordered our seedlings and saplings for our Arbor Day celebration. We will probably start advertising for that soon. It will be held in April, hopefully we will get a bigger turn out and keep it growing as well.

Trustee Kucewicz – Thank you to Sam for putting together agenda #8 on the short term rentals. Thank you to the board for passing it.

Mayor Peterson - fireman's Park the old long shed was taken down 10 days ago or so and they went right to work digging the foundation so I'm sure in the next week to 10 days you'll start seeing some construction of the actual building, which is exciting and tonight passing the geothermal heating and air conditioning system puts us up the list on climate smart, that's worth another 700 points which takes our total from 1100 to 1800 which puts us in the top eight of 35 municipalities and it also will get us an initial five thousand dollar Grant as well so it was it was a win-win in getting that switched over

Chief Ron MACIEJEWSKI - 24 Kibler Dr- I want to reiterate what Chief Gauthier said Thank you to the board for passing the property tax exemption law, it's another tool that the volunteer fire service can use for Recruitment and Retention and what that I just want to bring the board up to date on some things that were set out today by numerous organizations that the fire department belongs to and they are budgetary items for the upcoming state budget. The one thing that really sticks out is in the beginning of this article it's mentioned that there are 20,000 less volunteer firefighters today than there was 20 years ago so the state is being very proactive and supporting a volunteer fire service by trying to pass different laws and different measures that would help with recruitment and retention. I was speaking with the representative from Senator Gallivan's office before the meeting and I'm hoping that this is a bipartisan project on a state level between the Assembly and the Senate, but the Governor in her budget is including 10 million dollars to create a firefighter training stipend to help train the volunteer fire service. She's also putting in to enable municipalities an option to provide nominal fees to volunteer firefighters for emergency response and training it includes the addition of 22 new full-time employees to help further expand the availability, location and frequency of firefighter training which has been a problem, trying to get courses because of lack of instructors or lack of people in general so she is putting that in also and again the 10 property tax cap or property tax exemption that the board passed tonight. What our organizations are requesting from Southwestern Western State Chief or even County Emergency Services is that everyone contact their local Representatives, their local state Senate, local Assembly person and reach out and ask them to again do this as a bipartisan measure and pass these proposals that are in the budget. There are a couple other things that will also benefit the volunteer fire service but again we need everybody's support on this.

PUBLIC COMMENTS AND CONCERNS: -

Good evening, everybody and I appreciate the opportunity to be here my name is Jim Accurso from St. Paul Minnesota. I'm a publicist Affairs specialist with the small business administration office of disaster recovery and resilience. I met Mayor Peterson last week when I came in and these flyers are in the back if anybody would like to see them. We've got a fact sheet and our flyer related to the latest disaster declaration here in Western New York as a result of winter storm Elliott and as a result of that we are offering to homeowners, renters, non-profits and small businesses disaster loans in the form of two million dollars for business recovery so if a business had any loss of property or loss of income. Homeowners and renters can get up to two hundred thousand dollars for property damage. Renters can get up to forty thousand dollars. We're encouraging everyone to come into the two centers that we have operating here in Erie County through Thursday at four o'clock to apply for those for either the home disaster loan or the business physical disaster loan but the deadline to apply for those is actually April 28th so we're encouraging people to come in and ask if they ask about the loans if they have any questions related to the damage, maybe they lost power maybe they had water damage. I was on the radio today and I heard of a lot of wind damage even from the storm from flying projectiles and things like that but we're encouraging folks to come in and apply there's no fee to apply and there's no obligation to take our loans if they're awarded they are can be up to 30 years and the interest rates are 2.3 or 3.3. Again there's no obligation any loan that someone were to be awarded is deferred 12 months so a year and no accrued interest so it's in effect it's like a grant which the SBA's way of helping you get back up on your feet in times of disaster. I actually I travel the country along with my cohorts so we're in we're in and out of these situations all the time we know folks have been through a lot and then the last thing they want to do is really talk to a government person when they've to clean up their house and kind of get everything back in order but we are here to help and we encourage everyone to either come into the center apply online at disasterloanassistance.sba.gov. If somebody wanted a paper application, they could call 800-659-2955 to get a paper application mailed to you. Again, the deadline for those to apply is April 28th. This is all got to be associated with winter storm Elliott and any of the occurrence of the damage had to be between December 23rd and December 28th in the local area. You can go to meet on Thursday the Erie County fire training fire training right in Cheektowaga or the the Grider Center in Buffalo and there we have we have four customer service reps at Grider and two in Cheektowaga so process takes it takes maybe about an hour it's just like you know applying for any other loan. You need to bring in all your necessary paperwork and then you can maybe get a payout within four to five weeks if everything goes well.
